

PRESS RELEASE

CIRCULAR

Strada Circolare

By Anna Carfora

15-19 AUGUST 2016 - The Lion & Unicorn Theatre

Nobody's Child Theatre Company presents "Circular – Strada Circolare", performing at The Lion & Unicorn Theatre from Monday 15th to Friday 19th August as part of the Camden Fringe Festival 2016.

Written and produced by Anna Carfora, Circular - Strada Circolare is the captivating story of the relationship between an old lady and her niece. Strongly connected to one another, they are travelling in search of the meaning of Life while walking towards the old lady's last destination: her final nursing home. On their journey, they make different symbolic encounters: the 'cool crowd', a 'doctor', a 'father' and 'a lover'. "Circular - Strada Circolare" illustrates a moment of passage in the lives of the two women. At the end of the way they find the end of life and a new beginning.

Circular - Strada Circolare is Anna Carfora's first play. The show was originally written in Italian and has been translated by English writer Tim Parks, who commented: "It has a sort of lyrical formality. I like its strangeness and sincerity".

Nobody's Child is a Theatre Company composed of London based very talented Italian performers. The entire ensemble cast have a solid preparation in theatre practice, achieved both in Italy and in UK. The high level of their artistic skills include dance, movement direction, theatrical direction, fine arts, and true talent.

Cast: Anna Carfora, Depi Gorgogianni, Nazzareno Palmigiani, Stefania Maria Pisoni, Stefano Reali, Martina Serra.

When: 15th and 16th August 2016 – h 17:00 | 18th and 19th August 2016 – h 16:00

Where: The Lion & Unicorn Theatre, 42-44 Gaisford St, London NW5 2ED

Price: £8 (Concessions £7) – Book here

To book press tickets and interviews please use the contact form on our Official Website.

Official Website | Facebook Page | Twitter